Kids Making It is a non-profit youth woodworking program that teaches valuable vocational, entrepreneurial and life skills to at-risk, low income and disadvantaged youth. Our goal is that every student we serve will stay in school, stay out of trouble, and transition successfully into either the workforce or college. We serve 800+ youth and young adults annually (7-26+ years old). We do this through five programs designed to provide life and social skills and help young people connect work to income. They include Introductory Woodworking Outreach, After-School Entrepreneurial Woodworking, Apprenticeships, Summer Jobs Program (with Voyage of Wilmington), and our Skilled Trades Program. For more information, visit kidsmakingit.org.

Established in 1788, Thalian Association Community Theatre is a non-profit, membership organization dedicated to enhancing the Cape Fear region through live community theatre and arts education. Thalian Association Community Theatre produces five major productions annually on the Main Stage at historic Thalian Hall and professionally manages the Hannah Block Historic USO/Community Arts Center for the City of Wilmington. The youth theatre program offers training and performance opportunities for children age seven through high school seniors. In 2007, Thalian Association Community Theatre was designated North Carolina's Official Community Theater by the state legislature. For more information, visit www.thalian.org.
